

Wolds Vets

Vice President's Invitation

(and you really should have seen this coming)

Tigger Tor Fell Race

Sunday January 29th 2012 11.00am

Sheffield Tigers RUFC

9.5 miles /1750 feet

£5 pre-entry, £6.50 on the day

An excellent course over the moors west of Sheffield.

Bottle of wine to the first male & female Wolds Vet

(box of Yorkshire tea instead if sensitive to alcohol)

With the added bonus of

One jelly baby to all those who beat the vice president

And 2 jelly babies to all those nice people who don't.

Superb changing, showers & bar facilities. Families welcome

Accurate descriptions of the day out from: Barry Freer, Jorge Clavijo,

John Hudson, Kenny Mac, Mark Salter & many others.

Race details: donlongley@btinternet.com

Website: www.totleyac.org.uk

The small print – A really good day out, however, conditions can vary from sun to thick mist, frost & snow to very warm & hard ground to absolute mud. Full FRA kit must be carried (windproof & waterproof whole body cover, other body cover appropriate to weather conditions, map & compass suitable for navigating the course and also a whistle).

Interested? Contact Sandy on sandy.presly@tesco.net Tel 01652628461